SEABURY HIRES NEW CHAPLAIN

Will serve Seabury Residents, Members, Employees and the Episcopal Church in Connecticut

BLOOMFIELD – Fri., June 28, 2019 – Chaplain Jennifer Pilat from Cayce, S.C., by way of the Virginia Theological Seminary in Alexandria, Va., has agreed to become Seabury's new Chaplain. Her appointment begins on July 1.

Chaplain Pilat completed her undergraduate and graduate work at the University of South Carolina, Columbia, where she received degrees in Music Teacher Education and Spanish Language & Literature. Pilat also holds a Master's of Education and a Master's of Arts, also in Spanish Language & Literature, to which she now fluently speaks the language.

Functioning as an interfaith Chaplain at Seabury, Chaplain Pilat will serve as the representative for Seabury and the Episcopal Church in Connecticut.

A Chaplain Candidate Program Officer in the U.S. Navy Reserves, Pilat also owns over 50 hymnals in a dozen languages. Pilat will reside in South Windsor with her three children; Matthew, Tobias and Teresa, and her three dogs.
