SEABURY RESIDENTS' ASSOCIATION SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM HONORS TWO

In 10th year, two employees and Bloomfield residents are recognized.

BLOOMFIELD – Fri., June 22, 2018 – In the past year, Seabury overhauled its mission statement to be clearer, more concise and to be easily remembered. As Seabury Enhances Lives of its residents and members, the Resident Association is reciprocating by continuing to recognize employees who are eager to continue their education.

On Mon., June 18, the Residents' Scholarship Committee, chaired by resident Dr. Barbara J. Beeching, awarded two hourly employees with $1,000 to be used toward the upcoming Fall semester tuition of the school and classes of their choice. As an incentive and academic good standing, the awardees could be granted an additional $1,000 for the Spring semester, providing the student successfully completed the Fall semester curriculum.

Shania Hunt is a server at Seabury and ultimately plans to own a business dedicated to the interests of women. As a graduate of Classical Magnet School in Hartford, she will begin her undergraduate studies this Fall, at ECSU.

Jasmin Walker is currently a security officer at Seabury, and also takes courses at Tunxis Community College. With the aspiration of becoming a probation officer, Jasmin's academic goal is to achieve an Associate's degree in criminal justice.

Since 2009, the Scholarship Committee has awarded 14 scholarships to Seabury employees.
