Topping-Out Ceremony Marks Milestone For Seabury Expansion

Sixty-eight Unit Apartment Building To Open This Fall

BLOOMFIELD – March 20, 2017 – Seabury, an Active Life Plan Community in Bloomfield, will celebrate a topping-out ceremony on its new, state-of-the-art apartment wing on Tues., March 21.

Together with KBE Building Corporation, Farmington, Seabury has been underway on the construction of “Phases B and C” since late May of last year. The project includes 68 new, well-appointed apartment homes, health center expansion and chapel. Though Seabury doesn’t expect to begin moving in new residents until November, the topping-out of the South Wing is a distinct reiteration that the Life Plan community is on the move.

“This three-phase project is two-fold for Seabury,” stated Richard C. Heath, Executive Vice President and C.E.O. of Seabury. “We are actively repositioning our community for the future not only by expanding, but by taking our existing space and renovating so we can continue to be the leaders of our industry.”

Tuesday’s ceremony will begin promptly at 2:30 p.m. on the site of the South Wing.
