UCONN'S ADULT LEARNING PROGRAM SPRING SEMESTER 2021

The Adult Learning Program's (ALP) spring semester will commence in the coming weeks! For our own safety, however, the in-person Preview Meeting with the guest speaker will not occur. Alternatively, you will be able to see and hear many of the presenters who will be giving us a verbal glimpse of the 25 programs being offered via the Zoom platform.

This semester's curriculum will include a wide range of topics, including Islam, Macbeth, Art, Native Americans, Hinduism, Slavery, Birding, Sculpturing, Beethoven, Picasso, Writing, the Black Plague, and Comedy. And for all that and more, you'll be paying a "tuition" fee of $45 per person, as a SAH Member!

So for this semester, relax in the comfort and safety of your own home, listen to the presenters, read the course descriptions, select the classes you want to attend, and register using the mail-in registration form in the ALP Horn or the faster, online registration process that will soon be available on ALP's website; <https://alp.uconn.edu>.

The spring Preview Meeting will take place on Tues., Jan. 12 at 10:00 a.m.

COVID-19 VACCINE UPDATE

Dates have been announced for Seabury Residents and Employees to receive their first of two doses, which will begin on Sat. Jan. 2, 2021.

SAH Members — As new information is released as it relates to the vaccine for you, the SAH Membership, it will be disseminated to all of you, as soon as possible!

Seabury's Giving Tree

For the second year in a row, Chaplain Jenn organized the "Seabury Giving Tree," where employees could sign up confidentially to receive gifts for their children during the Holiday season! Take a look at the incredible love, joy and generosity by fellow employees to make the Holidays extra bright for our kids!
