Event Descriptions

Jeffrey Krieger has been Principal Cellist with the Hartford Symphony Orchestra for more than 40 seasons. He will be performing a solo cello program of works by Bach, Antonini, and Gabrielli, as well as an arrangement of Pachelbel Canon on Thursday, June 3rd at 11:00am in the Chapel.

On Thursday, June 10th, at 11:00am in the Chapel, the Cuatro Puntos Ensemble will bring a special program to Seabury residents featuring selections of music by Ameen Mokdad from their recent album, The Curve. During that time he wrote an extraordinary repertoire of powerful and emotional music. The 19 songs on this album form a soundscape that traverses a range of emotions: fear, defeat, hope, and rebirth.

On Thursday, June 17th at 7:15pm in the Chapel, Tamila Azadaliyeva and Peter C. Dzialo will be giving a performance that will include works for piano and cello by Beethoven and Vitali. Tamila currently teaches at the Hartford Community School, Loomis Chaffee School, and maintains a private studio in West Hartford, CT. Peter C. Dzialo is a cellist, composer, and recordist. Peter graduated from Yale in 2004 and resides in Glastonbury, Connecticut.

Ginny Lowe Connors will be performing a special poetry reading for the Super Strawberry Moon on Thursday, June 24th at 6:00pm on the Terrace. Ginny has served as the Poet Laureate of the town of West Hartford, Connecticut, and is a founding member of the CCPL (Connecticut Coalition of Poets Laureate). She is currently the co-editor of Connecticut River Review and writes a monthly column for the Hartford Courant called Connecticut Poets Corner.

Adult Learning Program Annual Meeting

Walter Woodward is Connecticut’s current State Historian, an Associate Professor of History at the University of Connecticut, narrator/producer of Today in Connecticut History and author of the “From the State Historian” column in Connecticut Explored. Professor Woodward is a scholar of Early American and Atlantic World history, with an emphasis on Connecticut and New England. His research interests cover a variety of subjects, including witchcraft, alchemy and the history of science, the use of music in Early America, and environmental history.

In his new book, “Creating Connecticut” and in his lectures, Prof. Woodward helps us understand how people and events in Connecticut’s past played crucial roles in forming the culture and character of Connecticut today. A gifted story-teller, he brings to life in new ways the history we thought we knew from the nearly forgotten early presence of the Dutch, to the time when Connecticut was New England’s fiercest prosecutor of witches, the decades when Nutmeggers were rapidly leaving the state, and the years when Irish immigrants were hurrying into it. Whether it’s his investigation into the unusually rough justice meted out to Revolutionary War hero Nathan Hale, or a peek into Mark Twain’s smoking habits, Prof. Woodward will leave you thinking about our state’s past—and its future—in a whole new way.
